

Making a report to our Whistleblower System – Online Platform (speakup.report)

Online Reporting Channel

You have the option of using a web-based communication platform to contact the Investigation Office in more than 65 languages. This system is confidential and technically secured and allows you to submit reports anonymously.

You can access the online reporting channel through the following link:

<https://goto.speakup.report/volkswagen>

Please note:

- For customer complaints, please contact respective customer service channels.
- Chinese laws and regulations limit or prohibit cross-border transfer from mainland China of certain “Sensitive Information”, including “Important Data”, “Chinese State Secrets” and “Personal Information”. By submitting such information via Group reporting channels managed by Central Investigation Office in Germany (the reporting channels such as io@volkswagen.de, Speak Up App, Ombudespersons locate overseas), you might risk violating the applicable Chinese laws and regulations and may also bear the risk of being penalized by the competent Chinese authorities.

Making a report to our Whistleblower System – Voice Intake by phone

Voice Intake by phone

You can leave us a voice message by phone 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. After entering the phone number (specific to the country you are in), you will be prompted to enter the organization code. Then, you can submit your report as a voice recording. Only a written transcript will be received by the Investigation Office. Dial back in to listen to the reply or further questions by our team.

Select a phone number from this list as below and have the corresponding organizational code 122203 ready.

Country	Phone instructions
China	Country wide number with no supplier restriction: 400 120 1842 Call charged at local rate.
China	Freephone (Via China United Network): 1080 0852 2221
